POETRY

THE WORLD WOULD BE THE BETTER FOR IT.

If men cared less for wealth and fame,

And less for battle fields and glory;

If it were in human hearts, a name

Seemed better than in song or story;

If men instead of nursing pride

Would learn to hate it and abhor it;

If more relied on love to guide,

The world would be the better for it.

If men dealt less in stocks and lands,

And more in bonds and deeds fraternal;

If love's work had more willing hands,

To link this world to the supernal;

If men stored up Love's oil and wine

And on bristled human hearts did pour it;

If "yours" and "mine" would once combine

The world would be the better for it.

If more would set the play of life,

And fewer spoil it in rehearsal;

If Bigotry would sheath its knife

Till good became more universal;

If custom, gray with ages grown,

Had fewer blind men to adore it;

If talent stooped for truth alone,

The world would be the better for it.

If men were wise in little things,

Affecting less in all their dealings;

If hearts had fewer rusted strings

To isolate their kindly feelings;

If men, when wrong beats down the Right,

Would strike together and restore it;

If Right made might in every fight,

The world would be the better for it.

Oh, what a tangled web we weave

When first we practice to deceive!

Can Mr. Johnson possibly extricate himself from the entanglements which he has woven around his own limbs?

Has he not exposed himself to the naught as one to whom Milton's description applies?

"A fairer person lost not heaven, He seemed

THE PRISONER OF ROCHELLE.

What does it mean?

1st. The movement does not mean a formidable invasion of Canada.

I am aware that, at almost every Penian meeting, money and munitions of war are called for, with the pledge that they are to be used against the British Provinces. For a number of weeks past, intimations have been given that the Fenian movement was to be made on St. Patrick's day in the morning. But, that blessed day, so dear to the hearts of Irishmen, is past, and Canada is safe. If all is not quiet on the lines, there are such preparations as will keep the Fenian leaders, and the great body of their dupes, at a safe distance from the border. An attempted invasion of Canada would bring down upon the Fenians, the combined powers of Great Britain and the United States.

2. The movement portends no general uprising in Ireland, to be followed by a war for Irish independence.

The Fenian leaders are not fools whatever their leaders may be. These leaders are adepts in the use of words full of sound and fury, but they have no idea of boarding the British Lion in his den. They show no disposition to peril their lives in an effort to secure the emancipation of the Emerald Isle.

Nor are they to be reproached for this.

John Bull has an angry way of dealing with rebels and filibusters. His policy is not always just or generous, but it is short, sharp, and effective. The Fenians have only to show themselves on British soil, and they would be overwhelmed and annihilated at once.

And, however Roberts and O'Mahoney may be, they are not to be reproached for this.

CURRENT EVENTS.

A. Johnson seems to be going downward at a rapid rate. Ingersoll of Ill., said in a recent speech;

"It was too bad to have the rinderpest, the trichena, the cholera, and Andrew Johnson, all the same year."

The discussion in Congress on the adoption of the Reconstruction Report was splendid. Senator Nye made a most glorious speech. He completely pulverized the President's policy. He "Appealed to the Senate to stand firm and see to it that there could be no recurrence of the Rebellion—that what was done was well done. In the name of the immortal dead and the mangled living, he demanded this. Beyond the grave we shall meet an army of 300,000 dead that will never again answer to the roll-call on earth; but, Sir, on the day of Judgment, they will be there. In their name, by their memory, by the immortal deaths they died and lives they lived, I demand that Congress and every department of the Government shall tread cautiously upon this great work of reconstruction. [Applause in the galleries.]

Congressman Deming made a splendid speech upon the meritorious services of Gen. Grant. We take an extract:

To him who entered the war as Captain, and won upon its battle-fields every successive grade, emerging from it with the highest rank known to the service; to him who, at Fort Donelson, first lifted the cloud which rested on the trembling nation; to him who at Vicksburg released the Father of Waters from his forced captivity with treason; to him who at Chattanooga opened the gates of Georgia so that Sherman might sweep from Atlanta to the sea, and from Savannah to the Cape; to him who successfully conducted 2 of the most memorable sieges in history; to him who received the sword of Buckner, of Pemberton and Lee; to him who received the capitulation of three great armies, and who dissolved the Confederacy at Richmond—let us not show ingratitude. Time destroys the proudest memorials. The impress which we have made as a nation upon the human family may all be obliterated. Our proudest achievements, those which embellish the walls of that historic rotunda, may all drop from the memory of man; our civilization, our liberty sculptured in the pediment of this Capitol, may all be engulfed in the black waters of Lethe; this massive structure, with its solid foundations, its expanded wings, its towering columns, its majestic dome, with our annals, our Constitution, our laws and our politics, may all be buried in one common grave; yet we shall not all perish. Rest assured that these American names will survive oblivion and soar together immortal—the name of him who founded the name of him who disenthralled, and the name of him who saved the Republic.

The Wool Dealers' Convention in Adrian has excited considerable interest among farmers. The practice of tying up wool was loudly condemned. As much wool and as little grease and dirt as possible is demanded. Thoroughly tag and wash—more will be paid for wool in good condition. If tied at all, it must be with smooth white twine.—The English Ministry avers that it will stand on fall by the enlargement of the Franchise.—Cholera cases are constantly occurring at Quarantine in N. Y. City.—Stevens, the head Fenian, is trying his best to effect a reconciliation between the wings. He has issued an order to all circles to subscribe towards the movement in Ireland, and to send all monies to him, at the Metropolitan Hotel. Stevens addressed 6,000 Fenians in Jones' wood. None of the Roberts party were present. His great plea was for money.—The body of Preston King has been found in New York Harbor in a wonderful state of preservation.—Jeff. Davis is to be tried ere long.

The President has vetoed the bill for the admission of Colorado. She will have to wait awhile.—Connecticut has elected a Radical of the first water, Gen. O. S. Terry.—Gen. Grant urges the passage of the Senate Army bill. Gold, 129 3/4.

But twelve months since Andrew Johnson gave expression to the following sentiments.

"Treason is the highest crime known in the catalogue of crimes, and for him that is guilty of it—for him that is willing to lift his impious hand against the authority of the nation—I would say that death is too easy a punishment. My notion is that treason must be made odious, and traitors must be punished and impoverished, their social power broken, and they made to feel the penalty of their crime. Hence, I say this: 'THE HALTER TO INTELLECTUAL INFIDENTIAL TRAITORS.'—Andrew Johnson, April 3, 1865.

Could he not in the multiplicity of speeches with which he favors the country, give us one taking the above extract for his theme? A speech by Andrew Johnson, of 1865, would be exceedingly interesting at the present time.

A GOOD STORY OF GOV. TOD.

Senator Sherman, in his speech at Bridgeport the other day, told this good story.

"A modern Democrat came to a distinguished Democrat of the State of Ohio (Gov. Tod) last fall, after the war had ended, and said: 'Now, my friend, you supported Lincoln all through the war; now the war is over; you have had everything your own way; and now suppose we start again the old Democratic party.' 'Well,' said the old Ohio Democrat, 'I don't know but that would be a good thing; I like the Democratic party; I was raised in it, and stuck to it until it deserted the country and went over to the rebels. I don't know but it would be a good thing to revive and purify the old party; but I would not do it just yet.' 'Ah,' said his friend, 'When would you do it then?' 'My friend,' replied the Ohio Democrat, 'when the Union party shall have discharged its full obligations it has assumed during the war; when it shall have paid all the pensions that are due to the widows of soldiers; when it shall have paid every dollar of the national debt incurred during the war; when it shall have punished all the rebels; when, in short, it shall have accomplished all that it has promised to do—then I am willing that the old Democratic party should be revived. I am not willing to trust the Democratic party to perform obligations that they opposed in their contracting. I prefer to see it done myself—to pay my own debts myself.'"

BY DR. GARNETT.

"Look at the Senate! There stands the Senator from Massachusetts; with his feet fixed upon the Rock of Ages, and clothed with truth as with a garment, he demands justice and equal rights for all men, without respect to color or race. His fame is not confined to one hemisphere or one age, but it is bright in all the civilized world, and will go down through every future period of time. There, too, is Senator Trumbull, the author of the 'Freedom's Bureau bill,' and although it failed in its passage, nevertheless he was successful, for whenever a man does that which is right he is successful."

"Marcellus exiled more true glory feels Than Caesar, with a Senate at his heels."

And there stand Wade, Wilson, Fessenden and Nye, and twenty-seven others, forming a galaxy of intellectual light, patriotism, and legislative ability that is attracting the admiration of every lover of freedom throughout the enlightened world. Look at the House of Representatives! There stands a veteran Statesman, leading on a host that has never yet suffered defeat. Crowned with honors and with years, sagacious, calm, and full of wisdom and courage, he is armed with arrows dipped in the flames of living truth, which he wings with the speed and power of the lightning of heaven. Yes, there stands Thaddeus Stevens. Thank God, he lives and moves and has a being. Thank God that the Hon. William D. Kelly, and Wilson of Iowa, and Julian, and Bingham, and Grinnell, and the glorious and illustrious one hundred and forty-one, still live, and are battling for their country's life and honor at the Thermopylae of Republican liberty. And thank God that the Hon. John W. Forney still lives to wield his pen and raise his voice in behalf of the rights of all men."

That was the colored orator's reply to the President!

WE MUST avoid foreign debt, decrease importation, protect home industry by a tariff which shall thoroughly guard its interests, and we shall have no panic or bankruptcy, but health in business, work and fair wages for all, real national independence, and Revenue without Ruin.

GENS. GRANT, Logan, Burnside, Hancock and Meade have all given their hearty support to Gen. Geary, the Radical candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania.

The proof of the pudding is not in chewing the string, but in eating and tasting. The same rule will apply to the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. Our better half says it is no equal, and will do much better work, and go much further, besides leaving the clothes in a much better state after washing. We do not hesitate to pronounce it far superior to any Soap in the market. Go get a bar and try it—most all merchants sell it.

CAUTION.—Those using the Red Jacket Bitters are warned to beware of impositions and counterfeits. The proprietors are doing their utmost to protect the public against counterfeits. Each bottle has a private U. S. Revenue stamp over the cork, and the proprietors' name, Bennett, Pieters & Co., blown in the glass of the bottle.

DR. D. A. PEASE,

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN,

for curing

CHRONIC DISEASES!

Will open Rooms at the

HAWKINS HOUSE, YPSILANTI,

May 20th, and will remain until June 20th.

No Medicines given!

No Surgical Operations Performed!

The happy day has come when the

SICK AND SUFFERING can be HEALED

without the use of poisonous drugs.

The unseen, yet all-potent elements of nature, used by persons favorably organized and conditioned, perform the most wonderful cures without the use of medicine, and so certain is the effect that many cases require but one operation, of a few minutes, to perform a cure. Almost all forms of diseases that are curable have been found to yield to this mode of treatment, and what is still more wonderful, a large number of cases that have been given up as incurable by the most renowned physicians of the different schools of medicine, have been entirely cured by this all-potent, life giving power, in an almost incredibly short space of time. No surgical operations performed, and no medicine given.

Almost all curable Disease can be cured with but few operations.

Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Diabetes, Dyspepsia, Liver, Heart, Kidney, Nervous and Spinal Diseases, Fits, Internal and External Tumors, Fever Sore, Sprains, General Weakness and all Pain, Sore Eyes, Sexual Weakness, Falling of the Womb, all Diseases of Women and Children, Erysipelas, Paralysis, Apoplexy, Palsy, Dropsy, White Swellings, Deafness, Neuralgia, Ague, Hysteria, Scrofula, Cancers, Salt Rheum, Tetters, and all Skin Diseases, Asthma, Sore Throat, Catarrh, &c., many cases of Consumption cured, and all more or less benefited.

Galesburg, Ill., Nov. 8, 1865.

This is to certify that by the treatment of Dr. D. A. Pease, Jr., I have been permanently cured of Chronic Bronchitis, of ten years standing. Received immediate relief, and disease entirely removed in two days. I cheerfully recommend all similarly afflicted to give him a call and receive treatment that will surely cure the disease.

Yours truly, E. A. Hewitt, M. D.

Bridgeport Centre, Saginaw Co., Mich.

Dr. D. A. Pease, Jr.—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in stating to you that I lost my speech about the first day of December last; that I was entirely speechless until your operation on me about a week ago; and that since that time I have been entirely restored, and can talk as well as ever.

Yours truly, Edward White.

I know the above statement to be correct.

Frederick Douglas' Lecture.

This lecture was an eminent success. A success in the lecture itself—in the large and intelligent audience gathered to hear the champion of liberty—in its pecuniary result.
Mr. Douglas came to us badly jaded, after a tour of some two months of constant lecturing and much night riding. He feared that such was his physical prostration he would fail to interest the people. He was compelled to speak at his ease, in a low tone. But we doubt their being an uninterested spectator. The lecture gave more than ordinary satisfaction. Some of the points and bits were capital. We shall give a pretty full account of it in our next issue. The masses were out—the thinking men and women—the most refined and cultivated people in our city were present—the leaders of public sentiment—the professors in our schools, and a goodly number of pupils. The University sent a respectable delegation. There were some who, to spite somebody, stand away, little thinking that they were spitting themselves most. Some of our Democratic friends could not rise above the mean, detestable, ungodly prejudices nursed in their bosoms by the leaders of a party claiming to be Democratic. What a slander on the substance. How damned by such men is that glorious word Democrat. What little, dwarfed souls, too wise to hear anything that don't accord with their own political views. The late Benjamin Follett, were he alive, with his big heart and magnanimity of soul, would, by his countenance and presence, have shamed those who would fain be his successors. But there were noble exceptions. Several of our Democratic friends of wealth and influence and true manliness, trampled upon the mean spirit of prejudice, and did themselves credit by attending. For the pecuniary aid, amounting, over and above expenses, to near $150, we extend to the public our heartfelt thanks.
It will be mainly expended in increasing the facilities of our Job Department. We owe a special debt of gratitude to Messrs. Dimick and Lay. They entered upon the thing with spirit and energy. They are deserving of the patronage of the public, and we rejoice that they are so largely receiving it.
Messrs. S. Post, J. A. Dwight, E. Hewitt, and S. E. Rogers will receive our thanks for assistance rendered.

Sad Affair.
Mr. Mason Hawkins, an old citizen, was accidentally shot by Mr. Gustavus Cross, on Saturday last. Young Cross saw a king-bird light on the west side of the street (Summit St.) and he passed across to the same side, about twenty-nine rods from Mr. Hawkins, and fired. Mr. H. was not in exact range of the ball, for had it gone straight it would have passed him about a rod to the west. It must have hit some intervening object, and glanced. Mr. Cross was not aware of any person being in the field, Mr. H. not being in sight. It has deeply affected Mr.
Cross and family, as well as the friends and neighbors of the bereaved. We trust our Common Council will prohibit the use of fire arms in the city.

Gift Concert.
Major Moore of our city is the foundation of the grand Gift Concert advertised in our columns. Several have enquired of us in reference to its reliability. It is our thorough belief that Mr. Moore will fulfil all that is promised, and if anything should occur that the concert does not come off, Mr.
Moore will return every dollar taken by those who may wish to invest.

Removal.
Our friend C. L. Yost has removed his Harness shop to this side—Jenness' block, 2 doors north of the Post Office. Les. was doing well at the Depot, and a harness shop was demanded there. But men will consult what they consider for their interest, while the world stands. Success to him.

Healing the Sick by the Laying on of Hands.

We call the attention of all who are afflicted with nervous and chronic diseases to the card of Dr. D. A. Pease, Jr., in another column. He is a resident of Detroit, we understand, and has been for some time in successful practice. He asserts that his mode of treatment is simple and philosophical, that in his practice he makes no use of drugs, which weaken the system and often endanger the life of the patient more than the disease they are intended to cure. He attempts to treat the whole system, both mind and body, into its normal condition, by the use of such means as nature furnishes. The Doctor is highly recommended by the press where he has heretofore practiced.—Ex.

Salina, Mich., March 23rd, 1866.—Dr. D.
A. PEASE, Jr., Everett House, East Saginaw.
—DEAR SIR:—In returning my most sincere thanks for the benefit I have received from your treatment, I wish to inform the public generally of my speedy cure. I had been suffering from Bronchitis and Disease of the Lungs for several years, and for months past have been a great sufferer, unable to rest night or day. After your first operation all pain left me and I have been improving rapidly ever since.

INCREASE OF RATS—The Farmers Gazette (England) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of rats will have a progeny and descendants no less than 651,050 in three years.
Now unless this immense family can be kept down, they would consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings.

in shooting small birds is a cruel man; whoever aids in exterminating rats is a benefactor.

traps for this business.—See, Am

COSTAR'S Rat Exterminator is simple, safe and sure—The most perfect RAT-ification meeting we ever attended. Every rat that can get it, properly prepared, will eat it, and every one that eats it will die, generally at some place as distant as possible from where it is taken.—Lake Shore (Mich.) Mirror.

FARMERS & HOUSEKEEPERS should recollect that hundreds of dollars worth of Grain, Provisions &c. are annually destroyed by rats, mice, ants, and other insects and vermin—all of which could be prevented by a few dollars worth of Costar's Exterminator.
